#13. Burt (l. to r) and Isabelle Barling are given a plaque in appreciation for all the hard and long hours spent working for the AHS, by the AHS president, Lee Trainor. Mr. Barling served on the Nomenclature committee with the late Mr. Reasoner, and worked hard and long to get the list started.

#14. Evelyn Monroe and the Blayney family from Ghana, Africa. They were on a combined business and vacation trip and changed their schedule so they could take in the Mid-Florida chapter show in Orlando. Mr. & Mrs. Blayney have a large collection of Hibiscus in Ghana where he owns a nursery and landscape business.

#15. Our new Nomenclature committee: (L. to R.) Mr. Walter Baum, Mrs. Tom King, Mr. Ted Rittenmar. Mr. Bill Bryan is also a member but was unable to attend the board meeting in Orlando where the picture was taken. Mr. Rittenmar is the chairman of the committee. (See story on page 17)

#16. L. to R. Ross Gast of California and August Miller of Hawaii. These two men possibly know more about the art of hybridizing than anybody in the AHS. One can imagine the fun they had talking shop while Mr. Gast visited Hawaii and spent some time with Mr. Miller at his home.

CORRECTION IN CAPTION IN LAST ISSUE:

On page 23, photo 14, in the July, August, September issue the editor goofed, (and his wife was in the photo too). The character between Mrs. Baum and Mrs. Monroe is "Hula Hips" Paul Lanius. The caption said it was Norman Brubaker. Norman informed us that it was not he and to please set the record right. So 'tis really Mr. Paul Lanius. Sorry.
